

Representative
Maxine Dexter
OR-03

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Based in Portland since 2011 and located on Hayden Island, Isolary is a two-person web and application development and design studio. They specialize in websites and apps but have other competencies, including services such as process automation or warranty claims management systems.