

Representative
Maggie Goodlander
NH-02

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Rotor, a Nashua-based technology company, has been developing unmanned aerial vehicles since 2021. Their two main products are the AirTruck, designed for carrying heavy loads, and the SprayHawk, capable of spraying up to 240 acres per hour to help farmers operate more efficiently.