

Senator
Jon Husted
Ohio

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Located in Cincinnati since their founding in 2016, Canned Spinach is a custom software development company that helps companies of all sizes make a big impact. From some of the smallest startups to some of the largest Fortune 500 companies, Canned Spinach helps businesses bring their ideas into reality through the launch of new products and services. They provide clients with web and mobile software development as well as design and next-generation technology including augmented reality experiences.