

Representative
Mark Messmer
IN-08

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Empowering people to grow their own food, Anu leverages technology to promote sustainability and food independence. Founded in 2016 and based in Evansville, the 12-person team develops hydroponic farming systems that cultivate everything from lettuce and vegetables to fruits and spices.