Discover the App Economy

Representative
Riley Moore
WV-02

Learn More About the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

TMC Technologies, headquartered in Fairmont, specializes in program and project management, scalable system and software engineering, IT infrastructure design, and network and telecom services for federal and local government clients. They also support local businesses, particularly small enterprises, by providing IT solutions that help them modernize and thrive in the digital age.