

Representative
Lori Chavez-DeRemer
OR-05

Learn More About
the App Economy

App Economy in Your District

Lewis Media Group is a family-owned and operated web design and digital marketing firm located in Salem and has been in business since 2008. Since their founding, the business has grown to 10 employees, and they include a large variety of services including search engine optimization, social media marketing, and even video and aerial drone video production.