Discover the App Economy

Representative
Mike Collins
GA-10

Learn More About the App Economy

App Economy in Your District

Located in Eatonton, Vizitech is a digital training and education platform founded by a veteran who realized that the military needed a better way to train young recruits. They use augmented reality (AR), virtual reality (VR), and 3D technology, all new technologies that appeal to the younger demographic of new recruits. In addition to their products for the military their offerings have expanded to include education and civilian training.