

Representative
Marie Gluesenkamp-Perez
WA-03

Learn More About
the App Economy

App Economy in Your District

Formos is a custom software development shop that has been doing business in Vancouver since 2003. The 69-person global team helps clients around the world solve complicated technology problems across industries including health, manufacturing, data analysis, and finance. Through their nearly two decades of experience, Formos helps companies build their initial minimum viable product (MVP), work through the beta stage, and supports each client through the launch of their final product.