

Representative
Mike Lawler
NY-17

Learn More About
the App Economy

App Economy in Your District

With only four employees, Artgig Studio is a boutique interactive design and development firm that works with clients to design, develop, and support the creation of digital tools to help businesses solve problems with technology. When they are not working with their enterprise business clients, they are creating educational apps for kids through their Artgig Apps program.