

Representative
Sylvester Turner
TX-18

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Based in downtown Houston, Octaria software development is a custom software business providing services for startups in the form of fractional chief technology officers (CTOs) and product managers as well as more traditional web and mobile software development. They have grown to seven employees total and have been around since 2018.