

Representative
Tony Wied
WI-08

Learn More About
the App Association

Tech Business in Your District

Appdroplet, based in Green Bay since 2011, is a two-person custom software development agency specializing in large-scale projects for the transportation and retail industries. They focus on building tools that seamlessly integrate into existing business systems. They also offer Appdroplet TV, a digital display product for retail businesses featuring weather updates, reviews, and news.